User says

"I want to get fit, but I am not sure which workouts suit me or how to plan my week."

User thinks

Wants a simple plan that matches the goal and intensity, and that can be changed if it feels too hard or too easy.

User does

Enters personal details and goal, reviews the generated plan and submits feedback for changes.

User feels

May feel unsure or unmotivated when plans are generic or do not match their level.

Pain points

Generic routines, no way to adjust a plan, scattered fitness information, limited access to personal guidance.

Needs

Simple input, a structured 7-day plan, a relevant nutrition or recovery tip and an easy way to request changes.
